A Fathers Perspective on Schooling a son with Autism

Come and hear first hand the experiences that Joe Teichman had to go through moving from Toronto to Kamloops British Columbia, to get his son enrolled in what at the time were the best services available for kids with A.S.D.

He will share the success his son had being enrolled full-time in a stand-alone centre dedicated to schooling kids ages 5-12 diagnosed with Autism.

Additional Speakers:

Wanda Carisse, Executive Director of the 'Chris Rose Therapy Centre for Autism' (formerly Giant Steps West Kamloops)

Joanne Scott-Jackson, Director of Development 'Giant Steps York Region'

Beth Israel Synagogue (main floor), 775 Weller Street. Peterborough, Ontario
